IMPORTANT INFORMATION

CLASS CURRICULUM AND PROJECTS

Children MUST meet the age requirement before classes begin to qualify. Students not meeting the age requirement will be withdrawn from class.

- Projects change from session to session. For returning students, past experience and skill level will be taken into consideration by instructors with regard to projects. Repeating classes does not mean repeating projects.
- Project descriptions may be subject to change.
- Artists of all experience levels, beginning to advanced are welcome in adult classes.
- Members receive discounts on classes! (To receive discount you must register at Brickton.)

Please Note: Our storage space is very limited. Please pick up your children's artwork promptly so that it is not disposed of.

For more information about the Brickton classes, call the Brickton Art Center at (847) 823-6611.

REFUND REQUESTS

If a class is canceled or if the schedule of a class is changed so that a student enrolled in that class can no longer attend, BAC will fully refund the tuition of that class. If a student withdraws from a course before it begins, tuition will be refunded or a full credit can be given. If a student drops a course any time between the first class and the middle class BAC will retain tuition for the classes attended but student will be refunded the rest.

- Not attending a class does NOT constitute an official withdrawal from a course or cancellation of tuition and fees.
- Make-up classes are handled on an individual basis. Brickton staff will attempt to accommodate missed classes but there is no guarantee.
- Refund requests can be made via email, in person, or over the phone.

Requests must be made within 10 business days after the last class meeting. Your receipt, cancelled check or proof of I.D. may be required.

Refund checks will be made payable to the original payee and mailed within 15 business days.
